DESCRIPTION

Hidden in the astounding Irish Hills, the spectacular Stanuseich & Serrano Ranches boast breath taking views of the Pacific Ocean, Morro Bay and the Los Osos Valley. The majestic rolling hills, studded with oak trees, provide exceptional grazing land. Presenting stunning building sites with uncompromised views of picturesque meadows, valleys and canyons, this unique offering is a one-of-a-kind opportunity for ranching or potential residential development of 21 certificated parcels.

LOCATION

Historic cattle ranches, the 1200±-acre Stanuseich Ranch and 715±-acre Rancho Serrano are situated in the stunning Irish Hills, just minutes from delightful downtown San Luis Obispo. These unique properties provide the privacy of a large ranch while simultaneously offering the enjoyment of great dining, wine tours, mountain hiking and beach recreation in close proximity. San Luis Obispo is located on California's Central Coast halfway between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The properties are located a short distance from downtown San Luis Obispo on Prefumo Canyon Road just 3 miles west of Los Osos Valley Road.

CLIMATE & RAINFALL

Typical of coastal San Luis Obispo County, the ranch enjoys a mild climate with an average annual temperature of 70 degrees. The property enjoys warm summers and mild winters. Summer temperatures vary from the mid 60's to the mid 90's. The winter months vary from the 40's to 60's. Occasional frosts are common during winter and spring. The rainfall in this area averages 20 inches annually, variable from year to year. The rain season, typical of California, runs from November through April.

RECREATION

With breathtaking vistas and endless occasion for leisure, recreational opportunities abound on the Stanuseich and Serrano Ranches. Explore countless hillsides and mountaintops on horseback, ride through the countryside on ATV or experience the thrill of hunting deer and wild turkey.
